Dear Parents/Carers,

Easter Treats Day – Poor Weather Plan

On Wednesday 27th March, we are due to have our annual Easter Treats Day. As part of this day, you will be aware that there is an Easter bonnet parade, where we will walk around our local area. However, having seen the forecast for Wednesday, we felt it important to make you aware of the poor weather plan:

- On the day, if the weather is deemed too poor (the current forecast is for rain and heavy winds), then we will send a text letting you know that the poor weather plan has been activated. If you do not receive a text message by 8:30am, then please presume that the parade plan is still going ahead in the local area.
- You will then be invited into school for a 10 minute class parade and photo opportunity in the school hall (see below for timings).
- If you have kindly volunteered to help us walk on the parade, you will no longer be required, but thank you so much for the offers, as these types of events simply cannot happen without you.
- The morning and afternoon activities planned to take place in school will be unaffected.
- The exhibition of work will still proceed as planned (3:15pm - 3:45pm in the school hall).

Froglets – 9:00am
 Penguins – 9:45am
 Meerkats – 10:45am

Caterpillars – 9:15 am
 Turtles – 10:00am
 Zebras – 11:00am

Ducklings – 9:30am
 Dolphins – 10:15am
 Giraffes – 11:15am

Yours faithfully,

Mrs B Watt
 Religion and Worldviews Leader
