Dear Parents/Carers,

As you will be aware, Ad Astra Infant School was visited by OFSTED this week, who are now conducting inspections using the new OFSTED framework that you may have read about in the media over the last few months.

I am writing to thank everyone that completed the parents/carer questionnaire and for your many messages of support and encouragement throughout the week. We are so very grateful and had a really positive inspection.

We look forward to our inspection report being published which is likely to be in the next month or two and will, of course, share it with you when it arrives.

Thank you very much.
